I remember one of my first church experiences as a teenager; the pastor was tossing around unusual sounding names related to God. A very passionate "Yeshua!" or "El Shaddai!" was laced all throughout the service and I was utterly confused. Finally, I started hearing some more familiar and intriguing names like Lamb of God. ...

Interesting post. While this is the general consensus of biblical scholars, Jesus' mission was to prove His Father's existence with His wonderful miracles. When that failed, He proved His Father's existence with His Resurrection. The truth is, God never harmed, let alone killed His Creation. Reference John 8:32

Not only for our kids, but now we have grandchildren to worry about!"

a lot of details or background on. All we know for sure, besides the account of her story, is that she was a Bedouin and the wife of Heber the Kenite. Before we talk anymore about Jael, we have to talk about what was going on in Israel at the time. Israel was at war with the Canaanites. ...
